Bell Schedule: In order to accommodate travel time for our new fourth floor, the daily schedule has been extended by 10 minutes. School will begin at 8:00am and end at 2:40pm. A copy of the new Bell Schedule may be found on the homepage of our website under “Useful Links” and will be included in the Student’s Planner/Handbook.

Seminar of the Human Person: We are excited to be starting the Seminar of the Human National Top 50 Person. This seminar will be offered twice per month to freshman and sophomores

(during S block) and approximately once per month to juniors and seniors (during R block). A copy of the curriculum may be found on the website under the Academics tab. Students will receive ¼ credit per year for this Seminar. The Course Description is below:

“This Seminar is designed to give students the self-knowledge, skills and confidence necessary to impact and shape their world before and after graduation. Each year the student will learn about specific skills and abilities that flow from her dignity and are pertinent to her current growth and development. Over the course of her four years here, she will gain a deeper understanding about herself, the dignity of the human person, and how she is called by God to impact the world in which she lives.”

Study Hall/Seminar and E/F block: With the adjustment to the bell schedule and the welcome of the new Seminar course, an adjustment was necessary to the E/F block period. E/F block classes will now run every day (Monday-Friday) and a new 40-minute Study Hall/Seminar block (R/S) has been added to the schedule. The R/S block replaces “Homeroom” and will run after A block on Day 1 and D block on Day 2. This will serve as the students Study Hall and will be also used accordingly for the students Seminar Sessions. Students will still enjoy a 15-minute Break in the morning.

Detailed information should have been given to these students in early June but may also be found on our website. All students are responsible for completing this summer work by the first week of school.

We look forward to having you all return and celebrate with us the unveiling of the fourth floor and side chapel. Enjoy these last few weeks of summer. May God’s abundant blessings be poured out upon each of you!
